Spotlight: Tripp Boyer

Tripp and our team are continuously learning and actively looking for growth opportunities. This month, Tripp spent two days with fellow independent financial advisors and business owners affiliated with Wells Fargo Advisors Financial Network for a conference focused on learning, connection, and growth.

Tripp was invited to join a panel on "Organic Growth" where the moderator asked thoughtful questions about how our team has intentionally built structure into our business, from defining clear roles and responsibilities for each team member to each of us staying in our "lanes" so we can serve clients with clarity, confidence, and structure. Tripp talked about how mindset, vision and putting the right "rock star" team together has led to our growth. He also was asked to share about our hyper structured client service plan with contacts, strategy reviews, educational webinars and client entertainment events mapped out a year in advance. It was a lively session with lots of questions from fellow financial advisors.

Military Ball and Gala

Tripp and Susan had a wonderful time supporting the Ccib Veterans Memorial Foundation at this year's Military Ball and Gala, held at the Atlanta Marriott Northwest at Galleria, Atlanta. As a practice, we love supporting events that honor those who have served our country and strengthen our local community. It was an inspiring evening filled with purpose, patriotism, and connection.
